State Auditor Colón Announces New Deputy State Auditor

NEW MEXICO – New Mexico State Auditor Brian Colón today announces the appointment of Natalie Cordova, CPA as Deputy State Auditor. Cordova began her new position on January 28, 2019.

“Natalie brings invaluable experience to the Office of the State Auditor in her new role,” said Auditor Colón. “She has a wealth of audit and finance experience and will provide effective leadership and oversight. She will ensure state entities are held to the highest standards of financial accountability through financial, compliance, and special investigative audits. Natalie is a terrific addition to the already strong team of CPAs, auditors, and civil servants working in this office. She shares my promise of delivering high standards and embracing excellence and will be a great complement to the work I am dedicated to accomplishing as State Auditor.”

Below is additional information on Natalie Cordova:

Happily married and mother to three young children living in Truchas, NM, Natalie Cordova is a veteran accountant with a strong background in internal and external auditing and overall financial analysis. She was most recently the Chief Financial Officer for the New Mexico Attorney General. Natalie joins the Office of the State Auditor, for the second time, previously serving as its Audit Director for the Financial Audit Division.

She received her Bachelor of Science Degrees in Accounting and Economics from New Mexico State University, where she was awarded the Outstanding Senior of the Year Award in the Major of Economics. In 2012, Natalie earned her license as a Certified Public Accountant.
