State Auditor Colón Warns New Mexicans About Unemployment Insurance Scams

Auditor Colón and the New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions Urge New Mexicans to be Aware of Fraudsters Seeking to Take Advantage of Unemployment Benefits

ALBUQUERQUE, NM – Auditor Colón is once again urging New Mexicans to be aware of fraudsters exploiting the COVID-19 pandemic. The Office of the State Auditor (OSA) together with the New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions (DWS) issued a joint risk advisory and fraud alert concerning unemployment benefits scams. Both agencies are calling for increased awareness as fraudsters continue to perpetuate numerous schemes related to the pandemic and are providing actionable steps individuals can take to protect themselves.

"Predators continue to target New Mexicans who are already struggling to make ends meet during this pandemic," said Auditor Colón. "These fraudsters are stealing personal identification information and as a result are stealing money out of the pockets of taxpayers."

Additional information for employers and individuals affected by COVID-19, including frequently asked questions, can be found at www.dws.state.nm.us/COVID-19-Info.
